

Dental Field Standard Operating Procedures

Updated: 23 Feb
04

Terminal Learning

Objective
~~Given the~~ appropriate data, identify the concept of the
Dental Field Standing
Operating Procedures (FSOP) in relation to the
Dental Company IAW FM 4-02.19, FM 7-1, and the Prof.
Dev. Branch FSOP example.

Enabling Learning

Objectives

- a. Given the appropriate information, explain the mission of the Dental Company within the area of operation/ responsibility IAW the cited references.

b. Given the appropriate information, provide the purpose of the Dental Company FSOP IAW the cited references.

c. Given the appropriate information, explain the goal of the Dental Company IAW the cited references

d. From a list, identify the succession of Command within the Dental Company for official communications IAW the cited references.

e. Given the appropriate information, describe how revisions are made to the FSOP IAW the cited references.

Mission of the Dental Company

Provide dental care and services on area basis to units within the area of operations

Reinforce or reconstitute the dental assets of other medical units, to augment the MTF combat care treatment

Purpose of the Dental Company Field Standard Operating Procedures

- Standardized routine
- Recurring
- Operational Administrative procedures with the Dental Company during field operations...

...In conjunction with higher headquarters'
SOPs and policy letters.

The Goal of the Dental Company

Provide the highest standard of care to patients in any contingency operation care to patients, whether garrison or combat environment.

Chain of Command

The Dental Company Chain of Command is the route of official communications between headquarters and subordinate sections. The succession of command is as follows:

Commander

Chief, Dental Operations

(in absence of higher ranking section leaders)

Executive Officer

First Sergeant

NCO's in Order of Rank

Revisions to the FSOP

1. The Executive Officer is responsible for the overall preparation and revision of the FSOP, in conjunction with all other staff sections.

2. Each section officer and NCO are responsible for preparation of, and revision of their respective annexes and appendices.

3. Final drafts of all revisions are submitted to the Executive Officer for the Company Commander to review and incorporate into the FSOP as appropriate.

Summary

- Mission of the Dental Company
- Purpose of the FSOP
- Goal of the Dental Company
- Chain of Command
- Revisions to the FSOP

Questions??